Norway's financial system coped well with the global financial crisis and has further increased buffers to deal with potential shocks, but significant financial imbalances have also built up since then. Favorable macroeconomic conditions in recent years have helped maintain financial stability. However, the prolonged period of low interest rates and high oil prices have fueled credit and asset price growth, leading to higher vulnerabilities. The housing market is estimated to be overvalued by 25–60 percent, and, at about 220 percent, the household debt-to-disposable income ratio is among the highest in the world. To finance this increase in lending to households, banks have relied extensively on wholesale funding. At the same time, Norway's close regional and global interconnectedness is a source of potential spillover risks. Stress tests suggest that under severe macroeconomic shocks banks and life insurers could face important but manageable capital shortfalls. A combination of severe shocks—including protracted low oil prices and a sharp contraction in house prices—could result in an aggregate capital shortfall for banks of up to 4.6 percent of GDP over five years. This requires continued action to ensure adequate capital buffers, including through discretionary requirements under Pillar II of the capital framework. Norwegian banking groups also face liquidity gaps in domestic currency and are exposed to maturity mismatches and rollover risks, due to their reliance on currency swaps. Insurers' solvency ratios would decline sharply under a combination of severe shocks under the Solvency II framework, although the rule for the transition to Solvency II would significantly reduce the immediate need for insurers to raise capital. The Financial Supervisory Authority of Norway (FSA) should continue to constrain dividend distribution by weakly capitalized insurance institutions and ensure that the insurance businesses of conglomerates are adequately capitalized on a solo basis.

Sanathana Sarathi Telugu 2011 to 2020
Springer

Started in 1958, Sanathana Sarathi is a monthly magazine devoted to Sathya (Truth), Dharma (Righteousness), Shanti (Peace) and Prema (Love) - the four cardinal principles of Bhagawan Baba's philosophy. It is published from Prasanthi Nilayam (the Abode of Highest Peace) and acts as a mouthpiece of Baba's Ashram as it speaks of the important events that take place in His sacred Abode, besides carrying Divine Messages conveyed through Divine Discourses of Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba. The word meaning of Sanathana Sarathi is the 'Eternal Charioteer'. It signifies the presence of the Lord in every being as the atma guiding their lives like a charioteer. It implies that he who places his life, the body being likened to a chariot, in an attitude of surrender in the hands of the Lord, will be taken care of by the Lord even as a charioteer would take the occupant of his chariot safely to its destination. The magazine is an instrument to disseminate spiritual knowledge for the moral, physical and mental uplift of humanity without any discrimination as the subject matter discussed therein is always of common interest and of universal appeal. The fifteen Vahinis - streams of sacredness - known as the Vahini Series comprising annotation and interpretation of the Upanishads and other scriptures, Itihasas like the Ramayana, the Bhagavatha and the Mahabharata, and authentic explanations on Dhyana, Dharma, Prema, etc., have been serially published in this magazine as and when they emanated from the Divine pen of Bhagawan Baba. This magazine is published in almost all Indian languages, English and Telugu from Prasanthi Nilayam and others from respective regions. Every year Sanathana Sarathi comes out with a special issue in November commemorating the Divine Birthday. The English and Telugu magazines are posted on the 10th and 23rd respectively, of every month, from Prasanthi Nilayam. This magazine has wide, ever increasing circulation in India as well as abroad, as the study of it brings the reader closer to the philosophy of the Avatar in simple understandable language THUS SPAKE

About the Book Women with breast cancer can't afford forgetting the details and intricacies of treatment. So just like a chapter in a book breast cancer is a chapter in your life. The book is but a compilation of some musings over author experiences in helping patients recuperate from breast cancer. It is an effort to help those millions of women in India who develop breast cancer and fail to get any support to fend for themselves. About the author During her internship in the surgical disciplines, she was overwhelmed by the vast majority of cancer patients and was determined to pursue surgical oncology. During the rigorous training in the Government Rajaji Hospital, Madurai while pursuing her Masters in General Surgery, the resolve just got firmer. She joined as senior resident doctor in the Department of Surgical Oncology in the Gastrointestinal Oncology Services unit at the Rajiv Gandhi Cancer Institute & Research Centre in November, 2008. In February, 2009 after clearing the DNB

CET she joined the Rajiv Gandhi Cancer Institute & Research Centre for super speciality training course in DNB Surgical Oncology recognized by the National Board of Examinations. During the DNB programme she had rotational postings in the division of Breast, thoracic & soft tissue services, genitourinary services, gastrointestinal services and head & neck services in the department of surgical oncology. She is presently Senior Consultant Breast Oncology at the Max Institute of Cancer Care, Shalimar Bagh. She is adept with the recent advances in breast oncology like Sentinel Lymph Node Biopsy, Breast Conservation Surgery, Oncoplasty, Axillary Surgery, Prophylactic Mastectomy, Skin Sparing Mastectomy and Breast Reconstruction and chemoport insertion including arm port.

CAREER GUIDANCE Blue Rose Publishers
Baba has clarified that the word Vidya used for this Vahini (Stream of Thought), means (Ya) that which (Vid) "illuminates." It is this sense that is highlighted in expressions like Atma Vidya, Brahma Vidya, etc., or even the name Vidyagiri given to the campus of Prasanthi Nilayam, which comprises the Institute of Higher Learning. Baba makes us aware of the comparatively less beneficial lower learning, which deals with theories, inferences, concepts, conjectures, and constructions. The Higher Learning hastens and expands the universal urge to know and become Truth, Goodness, and Beauty, Sathyam Sivam Sundaram. Baba has come as Man among men on a self-imposed mission, to correct the wrongs inflicted on mankind through the fanatically blind pursuit of lower learning. The human race has to voyage on an even keel; it is leaning too alarmingly towards the briny grave; the lower learning is lowering it into the bottomless pit. Vidya alone is the remedy. From His childhood days, Baba has stood forth as an educator, a Guru as the villagers loved to address Him. He warned, without hesitation, elders at Puttaparthi, teachers in the schools, and headmen of castes against cruelty to animals and exploitation of labour, usury and gambling, pedantry and illiteracy, hypocrisy and pomp. Through gulps and jests, parody and satire, songs and plays, the young, teenager Teacher ridiculed and reformed the society, which honoured or tolerated such evils. Through Bhajans sung in chorus by groups of men and women, He reminded them of the universal, human values of Truth, Morality, Peace, Love, and Non-violence as early as 1943, when he was barely seventeen. These were the basic acquisitions that Vidya, the Higher Learning, can confer on votaries. As Lord Krishna, He said to Arjuna, "Adhyatma Vidya, Vidyanaam." "Among all the Vidyas, I am Atma Vidya," the search for Atmic Truth. The world can be saved from suicide only through this Vidya. The search for Truth and Totality, for Unity and Purity is the means; the Awareness of the One is the consummation of the process. This Message is the sum and substance of every Discourse of His, during the last five decades. This precious book provides us the chance to peruse nineteen essays He wrote, in answer to appeals for the elucidation of the principles, which must guide us while rehabilitating education as an effective instrument for establishing peace and freedom, in us and on Earth.

Roams Review of All Medical Subjects
CBS Publishers & Distributors Private Limited

The stories of doctors giving new lives to patients suffering from diseases happen to be quite interesting. There can emerge interesting and vivacious shades of colours in times of lull in the medical journey or throughout the course of this journey. This book is an attempt for readers to experience these beautiful shades of colours. This book tells the story of three doctors, each having their own stories. But many similarities can be drawn from the three stories. The light is thrown on middle-class family struggles and the efforts spewed by parents to make their children live a life much bigger than themselves and to carry forward their unfulfilled dreams. There is sheer dedication to fulfil one's dreams and calling for moments of renunciation. There is happiness derived from the joy of fulfilling one's parents' longing wishes. The duty to treat patients is spanned. To instil demoralized people the lost will to live and the confidence to thrive brings a unique feeling of merriment. Its the moments of struggles and hardships that emerge as the mantra to ignite the courage to face the ordeals. The book contains the stories of Muralidhar Reddy, the doctor of the brain, Bharata Reddy, the doctor of the heart and Prasad, the doctor of the kidneys. The reason for writing the stories of these three is special-all of us are good friends. The friendship is indeed professional and displays the classic relationship between a doctor and a journalist.
