Our Created Moon

Creativity journal and moon planner with a fall motif, great for the third quarter of the year or a time when you are feeling autumn energy. I wanted to integrate the practices that I have worked with over the past several years. That includes practices based on the teachings of Abraham Hicks, Ezzie Spencer, Julia Cameron, Kate Northrup, Janet Conner, Todd Herman and Alisa Vitti. The journal includes pre-pages built for affirmations, commitments, and goal setting. Each month contains a monthly calendar. For each day, I have put in a daily schedule with space for segment intending (Abraham Hick's style!), flow food eating, gratitude, and space for your sketches of the moon. I wanted to be integrate planning my day with the moon cycle, and am hoping that this helps. After each schedule there are three pages for "morning pages", based on the work of Julia Cameron in "The Artists Way". At the end of the three pages, there is a small section for an oracle reading, such as a rune.
